

Rutland Historical Society Quarterly

Vol III, No.2

Maple Sugar Bush

This quarterly contains three different articles that include: Water & Fire by John Mayo, Rutland's earliest known photograph, a book review of Royall Tyler and the 100th anniversary of St. Peter's Church. Water & Fire by John Mayo discusses the danger of fire, having adequate water sources and Rutland's efforts to create an efficient water supply system. Rutland's earliest known photograph was taken by William Henry Jackson a pioneer of photography. The book review discusses Royall Tyler's book and his involvement in the community.
