

Rutland Historical Society Quarterly

Vol. II, No.2

Museum Workshop

This quarterly, published 1972, discusses the agenda for the general topics of the Historical society and its museum as well as developing the New Rutland Historical Society in Museum. Mr. John F. von Daaeke, the Supervising Planner of a museum out in New York comes to the College of St. Joseph to share his recommendations for the museum to be developed in Rutland city. There is also an excerpt of a biography of Charlotte Conant, a Rutland school teacher, who Mr. Wheeler was so greatly impressed by that he purchased the Dana school for her. An excerpt from the Rutland Herald was also included regarding the need for a fireproof building to hold the Centennial shows.
