

Rutland Historical Society Quarterly

Vol. 2, No.3

The Society Opens Its Museum

This quarterly, published in 1972, discusses the opening ceremony of the Rutland Historical Society at 101 Center Street on August 20. The ceremony was opened by U.S Senator Robert T. Stafford unveiling their new marble sign and leading the guests on a tour of the exhibits. The second page of the quarterly is an outline of the events that occurred that day, followed by a chronology of The Bank of Rutland.
